

Are You Wasting Valuable Time And Energy On Fundraising?

If you're looking for a proven way to raise money...
But you don't want to take orders... stock inventory...
or even spend a single penny...

Let me introduce you to the most exciting fundraising idea in decades... And it's absolutely FREE!!

Because what you do is so important!

Dear Mr. Jefferson:

It's a catch-22.

Your organization performs a vital service – one that people depend on. But you can't meet the needs of those people without adequate funding. And raising those funds often takes time and energy away from your mission.

After all, there's only so many hours in the day. And there's always another person in need of what you have to offer.

Now You Can Get Back To What's Important

Have you ever wished you could do away with fundraising all together? That there was some way your budget could be met automatically, letting you spend all your time doing the work your organization was created to do?

Or maybe you'd just like a steady, reliable cashflow. Something that insulates you from the ups and downs of irregular donations.

Well now, it's possible.

Introducing A Hassle-Free Way To Fund Your Programs

Hi, my name is Roy Babineaux. My wife, Wendy, and I are the owners of Cajun Country Candies. We've been making gourmet Cajun candies and foods for over 20 years, using recipes handed down in our families for generations.

Over, Please...

And we truly admire folks like you. Folks who try to help people. That's why we'd like to invite you to be a part of our success.

Our program is simple: when you sign up, we'll give you a FREE web page, where people can purchase our delicious products. We'll give you all the tools you need to promote your new site, handle all the inventory, orders, and shipping. And for every order that's placed on your website, you get a commission of up to ___%.

We handle all the hard stuff!

Hassle – Free Ways To Promote Your
CCC Website:

- Provide a link from your organization's existing website
- Mention it in your Sunday Bulletin or Monthly Newsletter
- Mention it in your regular fundraising letters
- Add the address to your stationery
- Mention it in conversations with staff and supporters

All you have to do is tell people about your website. It really is that simple!

An Even Greater Income Opportunity

But it doesn't stop there. Along with your retail website, you'll also get another page inviting others to join our program. When they do, you can earn commissions on their purchases as well. And on the purchases of anyone they recruit.. up to five levels deep! That can add up to quite a substantial income!

It's a product everyone loves: gourmet Cajun candies and foods, made with only the finest down-home ingredients. In fact, in the 20 years Wendy and I have been in this business, we've grown from a small retail shop here in Louisiana to a full-fledged, nationwide mail-order business. All on the strength of our delicious candies – people just love them!

You owe it to your constituents to visit www.ccc.com today and check this program out. We've made it as simple as we possibly can – no cost to join, no required purchases, no monthly fees. No fees at all!

Nothing but the possibility of a steady, reliable source of funds for your organization. All you have to do is visit www.ccc.com and sign up. There really is nothing to lose!

Except, of course, more time and energy if you don't. So don't delay!

Sincerely,

Roy Babineaux, Owner
Cajun Country Candies

p.s. – Don't forget, this program is 100% FREE to use. All you have to do is sign up, promote your FREE website, and collect your commissions! It's that easy!
