

Are You Tired Of Work-At-Home Hype?

Start Your Own Cajun Country Candies Business... And Be Treated Like Family!

Dear Future Business Owner:

I see people every day who've been burned by a "sure-fire opportunity." Too many people. They were promised the moon and the stars (and a six-figure income to boot).

They put their hearts into making it work. But all they got were angry friends and family members - who didn't like being pressured to buy things they didn't want.

So I'm not going to make you those kinds of promises.

Instead, I'd like to invite you to a place, deep in the heart of Louisiana. Smack in the middle of Cajun Country. It's a place where integrity still matters, and mouth-waterin' food is a family tradition.

My wife, Wendy, and I have been making and selling real Cajun candies and foods here for almost 20 years. And for over 15 of those years we've grown our business by helping real people (just like you) earn real money from home.

A Family Business

The candies Wendy and I make are from recipes handed down in our families for generations. Several of our sisters, and even one of our nieces work with us – we're a real family business. That goes for our dealers, too. Once you sign up to be a Cajun Country Candies dealer, we'll treat you like part of the family.

A Product Everyone Loves!

Cajun food is one of the most popular cuisines in the country right now. And Cajun Country Candies offers the best Louisiana has to offer. Items like:

- Butterscotch Haystacks
- Vanilla Pecan Fudge
- Chewy Pralines
- Pecan Clusters
- Hot Cajun Nut Mix
- Cajun Creole Coffee
- And A Whole Lot More!

That means all the support you need to make your business successful. There's a free, live conference call every week where you can get training and encouragement. If you ever have a question or a problem, you can call us during normal business hours (Central Time) and a real, live human being will pick up the phone and give you the help you need. (Go ahead. Try it now. The number is: 337 232-1229) You can even reach me, personally, if you need to.

So How Does It Work?

Our program is simple. When you sign up to be a dealer, you get everything you need to start your business:

Over, Please...

Marketing material to give or mail to prospective customers, wholesale order forms, complete instructions for running your business, and a ¼ lb sample of our famous candy. After that, it's as easy as 1-2-3!

1. Mail or hand out sharp, professional flyers with your dealer number on them
2. People enroll in our dealer program. They become your customers. You will earn up to 70% profit on everything they purchase – every time they buy!
3. We notify you when someone makes a purchase. You watch the money roll in!

An Impeccable Reputation

My reputation matters to me. In the years that Wendy and I have been growing this business through mail order, we have never missed paying a single commission check. It's very important to us to deliver what we promise. That's why we've been able to become members of our local Better Business Bureau (Acadiana BBB) and the Scott Business Association here in our hometown of Scott, LA. That's almost unheard of for a work-at-home business!

It's A Really Sweet Deal

Most everyone likes to give their family a special deal. I'm no exception. So I'd like to invite you to join the Cajun Country Candies family today for a very special, low price.

If you order your Dealer Pack today, which includes everything you need to start your business – your own personalized flyer to send out, wholesale order forms, a 26-page manual to help you make the most of your business, and all the support you need – you'll pay only $33! You'll also get a free, ¼ lb sample of one of our most popular candies!

And, because my word is so important to me, I offer a 30-day money-back guarantee if you decide CCC isn't for you. Just send back your materials in good condition and I'll send your money right out, minus the cost of shipping. The free sample is yours to keep.

So if you're ready for a real opportunity, for all the joys of owning your own business and working from home, fill out and send in the enclosed order form, along with only $33 for your Dealer Pack today!
